As a data subject, you have the following rights regarding the processing of your personal data:

Right to Withdraw Consent

- If we process your personal data based on your consent, you have the right to withdraw this consent at any time.
- You may withdraw consent electronically (via the responsible person's email), in writing, by submitting a withdrawal notice, or in person at the office.
- Withdrawal of consent does not affect the lawfulness of processing based on consent before its withdrawal.

Right of Access

- You have the right to request a copy of the personal data we hold about you.
- You also have the right to receive information on how your personal data is used.
- In most cases, your personal data will be provided in written form unless you request another method.
- If you submit a request electronically, we will provide the data electronically, if technically feasible.

Right to Rectification

- We take reasonable steps to ensure that the personal data we hold is accurate, complete, and up-to-date.
- If you believe your data is inaccurate, incomplete, or outdated, you may request us to correct, update, or supplement it.

Right to Erasure (“Right to be Forgotten”)

- You have the right to request the deletion of your personal data, for example, if the data is no longer necessary for the original purpose of processing.
- However, your right to erasure must be assessed in the context of other relevant circumstances.
- In some cases, we may have legal or regulatory obligations that prevent us from complying with your request.

Right to Restriction of Processing

- Under certain circumstances, you may request that we stop using your personal data.
- This applies in cases where you believe that:
 - The data we hold is inaccurate.
 - We no longer need your data, but you require it for legal claims.

Right to Data Portability

- Under certain conditions, you have the right to request the transfer of your personal data to another third party of your choice.
- This right only applies to personal data that:
 - You have provided to us.
 - Was processed based on your consent or a contract to which you are a party.

Right to Object

- You have the right to object to the processing of your personal data if it is based on our legitimate interests.
- If we do not have a compelling legitimate reason to continue processing your data and you object, we will cease processing your personal data.

Right to File a Complaint with the Data Protection Authority

- If you believe that your personal data is being processed unfairly or unlawfully, you have the right to file a complaint with the Slovak Data Protection Authority:
- Office for Personal Data Protection of the Slovak Republic
 - Address: Hraničná 12, 820 07 Bratislava 27, Slovakia
 - Phone: +421 /2/ 3231 3214
 - Email: statny.dozor@pdp.gov.sk
 - Website: <https://dataprotection.gov.sk>
- If you submit a complaint electronically, it must meet the requirements set out in Section 19(1) of Act No. 71/1967 Coll. on Administrative Proceedings (Administrative Procedure Code).
